Melody W. Mulaik Now Serves as President of Coding Strategies and Revenue Cycle

AUSTIN, Texas, April 24, 2017 – Melody W. Mulaik, MSHS, FAHRA CRA, RCC, CPC, CPC-H has served as the president of Coding Strategies, Inc., a multi-specialty coding and compliance education firm for nearly 20 years. In March 2017, Coding Strategies merged with Revenue Cycle, a medical and radiation oncology consulting firm. Ms. Mulaik will now serve as the President of the combined companies.

Founded in 1998 and based in Atlanta, Georgia, Coding Strategies provides consulting expertise and educational tools for the healthcare industry. Like Revenue Cycle, it offers services to physicians, administrators, coders, and other industry stakeholders. Coding Strategies' educational products include customized training, self-paced online training, webinars, and seminars.

"Since Cindy Parman and I co-founded the company almost 20 years ago, Coding Strategies has been dedicated to empowering healthcare professionals," said president Melody W. Mulaik. "The merger of Coding Strategies with Revenue Cycle provides an expanded service offering to the oncology industry and a great benefit to our respective clients."

"Melody's expertise, knowledge of the healthcare industry, and track record of success speaks for itself." stated Ron DiGiaino, CEO of Revenue Cycle. "Our alliance with Coding Strategies is a perfect fit," Mr. DiGiaino will now serve as the Chairman of the Board for Coding Strategies and CEO of the combined companies.

Cindy Parman, Principal of Coding Strategies, Inc. will now serve as Executive Vice President of the combined companies.
